Sudoku

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. Area schools honor Veterans Day

By David Nordby
The Brillion News

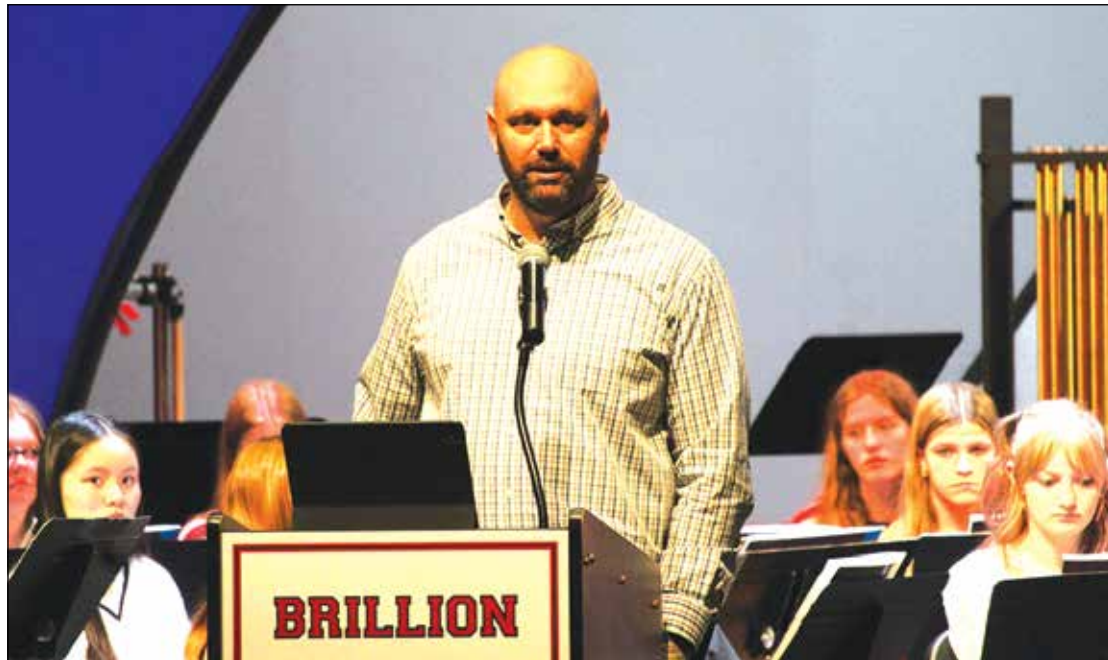

Area schools recognized the 71st Veterans Day with presentations at their schools.

Veterans Day, originally known as Armistice Day on the 11th day of the eleventh month officially became a federal holiday in 1954.

Robert Quillen is a veteran of the Army who competed tours in Iraq and South Korea from 2002 to 2006 as an electronics technician. He's now the chief operating officer at Holweg-Weber in Kiel.

Quillen said that he and his Army mates experienced hostile lands and enemy forces.

"I, and my fellow soldiers, faced constant stress through these difficult situations. Although these were tough obstacles to overcome, we relied on each other communicating and working together to ...

Dietz, who started his professional career the same year PPI started, took over as general manager in 2001 and stayed until his transition to an advisory role earlier this fall.

One of Dietz's top things he brought to Professional Plating was one he learned at previous stops in his career – a sense of team inside the walls of their building.

"We look for reasons to do really neat things," Dietz said.

Dietz says contributing to fundraisers like the recent Coats for Kids Drive give a sense of pride to teammates.

"Do everything you can to keep their mind focused on good. If they pull down Northway Drive every morning and they're looking forward to what may be new, what may be exciting, what are we going to have fun doing," Dietz said. "If your motivation is such that, 'Oh, I don't feel like going to work tomorrow,' then you're going to be looking other places."

Anyone who's walked through PPI has seen the clean environment that's well-kept. ...
